

cororio.

Carlyle Harris's Hopes.

An opportunity to study the mind of an intelligent man condemned to death will be given in

THE SUNDAY WORLD.

PRICE ONE CENT.

BANK ROBBERS KILL.

Two Masked Men Shoot a Citizen

at Waverly, Kan.

They Are Captured and Bound

After an Exciting Pursuit,

PRICE ONE CENT.

NEW YORK, SATURDAY, JANUARY 28, 1893.

SAVES YOU DOLLARS---WORLD'S TWO AND THREE TIME RATE.

HAWAII'S · THRONE

And Her People Come Knocking at America's Door.

nexation Arrives at San Francisco.

Provisional Government Established Pending a Decision at Washington.

News of the Revolt Arrives by the Steamer Bringing the the monarchy abrogated, Government buildings seized and the new Provisional Ministry, composed of four members, is sustained by

This was resisted by the foreign element of the community, who at once appointed a Committee of Safety of thirteen members, who called a mass-meeting of their class, at which 1,200 or 1,500 were present. That meeting unanimously adopted resolutions condemning the action of the Queen for their lives. so, and organized a Provisional Government on the Tuesday following.

tively, in the order in which saumerated, according to existing Hawaiian law, as far as may be consistent with the preclamation, and also of the Advisory Council, which shall consist of fourteen members, whose hereby declared to be:

8. M. Damon, L. A. Thurston, J. Emmalmuth, J. A. McCandless, F. W. McChesney, W. R. Castle, W. C. Wilder, A Brewn, J. F. Morgan, H. In the Blue Room lasted a long time. The Queen hesitated. The conference in the Blue Room lasted a long time. The Queen could not be induced to give up heritance of the induced to give up heritance of the

The new Covernment then notified the once recognized by all the Powers but me ever in your love."

erson, Attorney Consral.

the palace and barracks. The ex-Queen replace, and the Government has granted her and disbanded.

A strong force of volunteers took possession and was left in charge of the Palace barracks, Police Headquarters and other Government buildings.

At headquarters the work of military organization was rapidly pushed forward, and volunteers continued to pour steadily in from all quarters. It was not apprenended that any difficulty would arise upon the other The steamer Claudine was chartered and commission Asking for An-Jan. 19, with the five Commissioners aboard instructed to proceed to Washington and negotiate a treaty of annexation. The Com-missioners are: Lorrin A. Thurston. William

C. Wilder, William R. Castle, Charles L. Carter and Joseph Marsden. The Claudine also brought up the representatives of the deposed Queen.

The Hawaiian Gazette says one of the linisters received positive information when the blow was to be struck on the 15th inst. He immediately proceeded to consuit two prominent citizens on the course to be taken. After a conference the gentlemen referred to advised the Cabinet to re-

The prorogation of the Legislature was the last chapter in the story of the morning. It went off tamely and quietly enough, but those who were acquainted with the real sit-uation felt that the Government and the nation were sleeping on the crest of a volcano.

in the afternoon, immediately after the House had been prorogued, the Hui Kalalaina marched over to the palace and presented a this morning the steamer Claudine arrived in new Constitution to the Queen with the perform the Hawaiian Islands, rringing petition that the same be promuigated to the important news of a revolution in that people as the fundamental law of the law of the people as the fundamental law of the law o The matter of the new Constitution and petition had been prearranged, and it is stated that its promulgation had been promised two Lapains, William White, has been actively working up the movement.

A large crowd of Hawalians had gathered around the palace gates and in the grounds near the flight of steps, and natives were also gathered in large groups in the Government Building yard and elsewhere in the neighbor-

The Queen retired to the blue room and Dominis was with her. After summoned the Ministers. They came and died, his royal wife advertised for his relational Liliuokalani seated at a table, still tives and among the first replies was one dressed in the magnificent costume of the from a former wife, of whose existence Liliuomorning, and sparking in a coronet of dia-monds. She at once presented them with a from the beginning of her reign the Queen draft of the new Constitution, demanded has been handicapped by the fact that she heir signatures and declared her intention | could not command loyalty on account of her more nesitatingly, joined their colleagues in their refusal. All the Cabinet advised and a plot was on foot to deliver the kingdom even strongly urged Her Majesty not to violate the law, but she was not to be dissuaded from her revolutionary course.

Bringing her clenched hand down upon the table, Queen Lilluokalani said: ', Gentlemen, I do not wish to hear any more advice. I indo it now."

Proceeding, she told the Cabinet that unless they abandoned their resistance at once she would go out upon the steps of the palace and tell the excited crowd there assembled that she wished to give them a new constitution, but her Alinisters were inside the palace hindering her from doing it.

The Ministers remembered the riot at the Court-house and the fate of unlucky Representatives who fell into the hands of the mot. They knew what the threat meant and before it could be put into execution they fied

From the Government Building the Ministers immediately sent word about town ask-were assembled the Rui Kalaisine with most Young & Smylle's Acme Licerice Pellets. of the native members of the Legislature, the Indispensable to public speakers, singers, et al.". The new Government then called on volun- of the native members of the Legislature, the Ind cers, who assembled, fully armed, to the cabinet, the Governor of Oshu, the young HELD IN $10,000 EACH. The old Government surrendered without Bickerton, of the staff, ladies of the Court, striking a blow, sithough it had about four Kahili bearers, &c. She ascended the dais hundred men under arms and a battery of and announced the postponement of the Constitution. oreign representatives of the change in quietly," said she, "and continue to look toaffairs and asked recognition. It was at wards me and I will look towards you. Keep

Mr. White replied, thanking the Queen, and The Provisional Government promised assuring her of the love of the people, and that they would wait patiently until their in the Government service, except the fol-

Me Kaunamano then began in a loud voice Queen Lilinokalsui, Charles B. Wilson, Marshal; Samuel Parker, Minister of Foreign Affairs;
W. H. Cornwell, Minister of Finance; John F.
Calhoun, Minister of the Interior; Arthur P. Peterson, Attorner Goneral,

Attorner Goneral,

The Authority harangue, which was suppressed. He demanded the lives of the Cable inct, who had opposed the wishes of Her Majesty, and declared that he thirsted for bloodin Default of Ball.

tired to her private residence at Washington dressed the crowd. She told them that on an honorary guard of sixteen men. The was unable to give them the constitution Household Guards were paid off to Feb. 1 which she had promised them, but she would account of the perfidy of her Ministers she which she nad promised them, but she would for them.

yould never close his mouth until the new constitution was granted. Finally he yielded to the expostulations of Col. Boyd and others, threw up his hands and declared that he was done for the present.

further consideration of the situation was delegated, after which it adjourned.

States steamship Boston landed about three hundred men. Each man had two belts o cartridges around his waist and was armed The men marched up to the office of the Consul General of the United States, where the balt was made. The marines were detached halt was made. The marines were detached put in one corner, among the drunks and sent to the American Legation, put in one corner, among the drunks and sent to the American Legation, and dissolute women picked up by the marines marched out along and dissolute women picked up by the fuse to sign a new Constitution and to while the sailers marched out along and dissolute won decline to resign if their resignations should merchant street with two Gailing guns police over night. and made a halt in front of J. Hopper's residence. About sundown they moved to the grounds of J. B. Atherton and after a stay of several hours returned to Arion Hall, where they camped over night.

> Queen Liliuokalani, of Hawaii, ascended the youthful Sturgis. throne Jan. 19, 1891. She was born Sept. 2, 1838.

and was declared heir-apparent to the throne by her brother on April 17, 1877, when the brother of King Kalakaua died.
Some time before Kalakaua sailed for San Francisco, where he died, Princess Lilluo-Regent, and upon becoming Queen she simply continued to perform duties of ruler. Her husband was John O. Dominis, who died recently. He had been a Dalmatian satior, and subsequently held Government positions in Hawaii. When Imen Kajiolant, consort of Kalakaua, was in this city, about four years ago, Mr.

During the turbulent beginning of her reign Attorney-General Peterson and Minister of she was taken ill with an organic trouble, > to the British. The father was said to be a party to the several smaller ones which are barren and do not support life. All are of voicanic formation, and on Hawaii is the active voicano Kilanea.

The population numbers 80,000, half being native and the rest mostly Chinese, Japanese, Portuguese, English and American Ainest all the commerce is with the United States, and although England artend to business in the courtroom. Lawyer Hanford then drew the complaints attend to business in the courtroom. Lawyer Hanford then drew the complete United States have increased, and the interests of the United States have increased, and the interests of fluence of her capitalists now predominates.

His Tool Arraigned.

in Default of Ball.

George M. Nisbett, the alleged forger of the now celebrated $50,000 check, and Dawes E. Sturgis, the youth who, it is claimed, was Nisbett's catspaw, were take the earliest opportunity of procuring it in the Tombs Court this morning for

ORO. M. NISBETT. The pair were brought down from Police Headquarters by Detectives Rogers and Kush, of Inspector Mc-

Nisbett appeared unconcerned at first, but as he realized his surroundings he gradually lost his air of confidence and began to look decidedly downcast. Nisbett has a very intellectual face denotes little strength of character. His chin recedes, and he seldom looks one in the face. His whole appearance seems to bear out his father's assertion that he was only a green boy, who proved pilable in the hands of a man of greater strength of mind. Sturgis was dressed in deep mourning for his mother, who disappeared from the Fall River boat Pilgrim about three months are.

the Fall River boat Pilgrim about three months ago.

Shortly after the arrival of the prisoners, there came into court A. Douw Lausing, agent for the Royal Insurance Company, in Albany; Solomon Hanford, of Shipman, Larocque & Choate, counsel for the Insurance Company; George Zabriskie, counsel for the Merchant's National Bark, and E. F. Beddall, manager of the Royal Insurance Company.

At Il o'clock the prisoners were taken into Justice White's private room, and Justice White asked who the complainant was. There was no answer for some minutes.

Finally Lawyer Hanford stepped for-

THE BLOCK SYSTEM WILL NOW BE TRIED

SWELL WEDDING AT CITY HALL.

The Bride Appeared in White Satin, Bridal Vell and Orange Blossoms. No City Hall wedding in many days attracted so much attention as that of Richard eidelman and Augusta Thomas, which was performed to-day by Alderman Muh, of the Eighteenth District. The couple started out to get married in style. Both bride and bridegroom said they lived at 92 Allen street. From their east side home they drove in open carriage, drawn by four white horses, through Division street,

WHISKEY MAGNATES MEET. A Secret keeting in This City This stormy passage of 185 days from Kobe, Japan. The Vigilant touched at the famous

Afternoon. The magnates of the "Whiskey Trust" will have a secret meeting in this city some time this afternoon, at which, it is said, the subject of a general reduction by the Trust in the price of spirits will come up for dis-

The matter of rebates will also be considered, and it is expected that a statement week.

The meeting it is reported will probably be held at the Plaza Hotel. None of the leading omicials of the company could be found in Wall street this morning. In the stock market Whiskey sagged.

COMES BACK IN TOW.

The Steamer Georg Dumois Brought The Norwegian fruit steamer Georg

the wrecking steamer 1. J. Merritt, and put into Stapletyn, S. I.

The Georg Dumois left New York Dec. 10

dumois arrived here this morning in tow of terminediatity cent word about town ask into the titres immediately cent word about town ask into the titres immediately cent word about town ask into the titres immediately cent word about town ask into the titres into citizen where the titres is the titre distance of the reproduction to the titres of the reproduction to the titres of the reproduction to the titres where the titres is the titre distance and the control of the titres and the titres is the titre distance and the control of the titres and the tit Public Funds from an Ex-Treasurer. failed to produce.

MADISON, Wis., Jan. 28.—Yesterday sens. A decree is officially published antor Sawyer's bank at Oshkosh sent a eneck to nouncing the removal of the name of the State Treasurer for edd,000, which is a Dr. Cornelius Herz from the roll of portion of the money collected by State the Legion of Honor.

championship of Canada between George ing greater popularity with the better class Sutton of New York, and Joseph Capron, of of sinokers than any brand ever presented. Galt, was won by Sutton by a score of 700 to The "Applicat." is not made by a treat.

air of quietude pervading its surround- slush which the people nave been obliged to ings, the crape on the bell knob and wade through for several days. the absence of the newspaper watchers. The relief, however, will, according to death being instantaneous, who for seven weeks have remained Weather Porecaster Dunn, be only tem. A fusiliade of shots follows:

All the arrangements for the quiet funeral are nearly completed, and will A warm wave is moving East in the combe announced later in the day. The pall-bearers will be personal friends of the dead statesman. Admis-Brisk and high northeast winds will usher in sion to the Church of the Covenant, where the services will be held, will be by card, and after the alloted seats have been assigned to the family and immediate personal friends, to the President and Cabinet, and to the Diplomatic Corps, who will attend unofficially, there will be very little room left.

part of the United States and from foreign countries continue to pour in. There is an apparently endless chain of messenger boys passing between the startling intelligence from that usually quiet Capt. Bailey says that the residents of the place, who are the descendants of the muti-neers of the ship Bounty, are in a state of mind owing to the fact that the island, which mind owing to the fact that the island, which is an extinct volcano, is gradually drying up. There has been no rain for two years, and the little colory, which has now dwindled to 130 persons, subsistentirely on fruit.

NO RAIN FOR TWO YEARS.

In some places the ground is so hot that it burns the lect to walk upon it. The only animals on the island are dogs and cats. The people are sirict vegetarians and use netteer rum nor tobacco.

Capt. Bailey also reports that about five months before he touched at Phicairns a shipwrecked sallor, one Coffin, of Cape Cod, was washed ashore on the island.

Coffin was informed that smoking was against the rules of the place and he took up his quarters on an isolated spot on the mountain side. Re is waiting for a ship to take him home.

of Andrieux and Delahaye. PARIS, Jan. 28.-At a meeting of Senand M. Andrieux have speken on sev-

RECEIVER FOR M. A. C. Real Estate Dealer Freedman [Ap-

application for the appointment of a receiver for the Manhattan Athletic Club Beefsteaks to Stimulate Democracy. was made this merning to Judge Patterson, of the supreme Court, on behalf of a majority Tammany braves of the Eighth District will of the directors of the Club. Justice Patterson appointed Andrew Freed-Freedman is a real estate dealer. He was suggested by both airles and is friendly to all concerned.

Bravery of the Cashier Results in Driving Them Away.

> sttempt was made to rob the bank of Waverly yesterday.
>
> At 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon two masked men entered the front door of the bank and, covering Cashier Duvall and Assistant Cashier Converse with their revolvers. proceeded coolly to rob the vault and cash

WAVERLY, Kan., Jan. 28 .- A desperate

While they were thus engaged Mr. O'Neil, a merchant, entered the bank for the purpose of making a deposit.

At the risk of his life Cashier Duvall called out to him to run and alarm the officens. The robber who was guarding the cashler levelled his revolver as though he would shoot, but for some reason changed his mind. Mr. O'Neil ran across the street and gave the alarm.

pursued by a number of citizens. Foremost in the pursuit was A. P. Incleman. As the first of the robbers leaped into

The robbers ran for their horses, which were in the alley behind the bank, closely

A fusilisde of shots followed, but the robbers succeeded in getting out of the town unharmed.

A posse of citizens followed in pursuit and were joined by others from Lebo and Mal-About two miles from Lebo the robbers were caught and surrounded, and after some more firing, in which soch of their bornes were shot dead, they surrendered, their am-

Many shots were fired on both sides, but strange to say with the exception of the killing of horses no damage was done. The robbers were taken to Lebo, where they were bound hand and foot and left in munition being exhausted.

custody of a constable. The Sheriff will soon take charge of the men. It is thought there will be no effort to

The amount of money the robbers got is not known exactly, but it was small as were frightened away before they had time Street-Cleaning Commissioner Brennan was to secure much. They have been identified as Billy Vanner.

man and Frank Lewis, both of Malvern, a Vannerman was raised in Waverly and was known to be a hard character.

Ingieman, the citizen who was shot down, leaves a widow and several children, and was in rather poor circumstances.

MISSING AFTER A HOTEL FIRE Two or Three Lives May Be Lost at

West Superior, Wis. WEST SUPERIOR, Wis., Jan. 28,-Fire at 10 o'clock last night destroyed property valued at $70,000, and it is possible two lives have been lost, as two or three people are wholesale Mail Robbery Discovered in Bridgeton, N. J.

BRIDGETON, N. J., Jan. 28.—A wholesale robbery of the mails was perpetrated in this city last night. Nine street letter-boxes were broken open and rified of their contents. The robbery was not discovered until after daylight this morning.

The police are co-operating with the Post-Office authorities in their efforts to trace the thieves. It is impossible to tell just how much matter was stolen or the value of the letters taken.

THIS KING DETHRONED.

This reproduces the trace the letter taken.

THIS KING DETHRONED.

Lender of the "Fanhandlers" Goes to the laland.

gaved. $75,000 Fire at Chicago. CHICAGO, Jan. 28. -The six-story building t 62 to 66 Canal street was almost destroyed by fire tetween 12 and 1 o'clock this mora-The loss will aggregate $75,000.

$500,000 FIRE IN BERLIN. The New Central Market Building Is Completely Gutted.

BERLIN, Jan. 28 .- The fire which broke out resterday afternoon in the cellars of the New Justice Ingraham Decides Against Central Market here was not subdued until 6 o'clock this morning. The structure was completely gutted. The less amounts to 2,000,000 marks ($500,000).

> WHITE IS NO LONGER WANTED. Mrs. Nagle Asks Gov. Osborne to

Recall His Requisition. CHEVENNE, Jan. 28.—Gov. Osborne yesterday heard arguments on the petition for a recall of the requisition of the Governor of New York for Charles A. White, the young man who captured Cheyenne's $400,000 widow, Mrs. Nagle.

It was represented to the Governor that White had not stolen $75,000 of securities, but that they were given to him by his wife, who also gave him $25,000 in cash and large sums of money. Decision was reserved.

Barracks Gang Lays in Supplies. Daniel Dunleary, Thomas Donohue, Corne, 1103 Sullivan and Patrick Coyle, members of dence when arrested on a warrant issued by Mayor Santord, of that city, charged with the notherious "Barracks Gang," of West Sixteenth assisting Mayor theach to remove puttle documents from the City Hall.

Bixen's Expectenant, the wonderful cough

Commission.

QUEEN LILIUOKALANI. a provisional government has been established by the unrising of the speople, Queen he bayonets of volunteers. The Queen attempted on Saturday, Jan. 14. to promulgate a new contstitution, depriving torotoners of the right of franchise and abrogating the existing House of Nobles, at the same time giving her the power of appointing and authorizing the Committee to take into further consideration whatever was necessary to protect the public safety. They did

This Government was composed of S. B. pole, J. A. King, P. C. Jones and W. O. Smith. hey at once issued a proclamation reciting he arroyance of the Queen, giving the pronen promises of Her Majesty, detailing the wrongs inflicted on residents and propertyowners and ending as follows:

We, citizens and residents of the Hawatian Islands, organized and acting for the public safety and common good, hereby proclaim as follows: First, The Hawailan monarchial system of gov erament is hereby abroyated. section of the public peace, as hereby established exist until terms of union with the United States of America have been negotiated and agreed ist of an Executive Council of four members, who resist the revolutionary encroachments of are hereby declared to be S. B. Dole, J. A. King, P. C. Jones and W. O. Smith, who shall adminiter the Executive Departments of the Government the first named acting as Freedent and Chair Department of Foreign Affairs and the hension that they would be taken into cusothers severally administering the Department of tody, even if they suffered no bodily harm.

Interior, Finance and Atterney-General respeclively, in the order in which enumerated, accordupon Her Majesty to induce her to go no fur-

"Return to your homes peaceably and The $80,000 Check Forger and

The Government assumed formal control of A few moments later the Queen went out

The crowd gave three cheers. Representative White then proceeded to the steps of the Palace and began an address. He told the crowd that the Queen and the Cabinet had betrayed them, and that instead of going home peacefully they should go to the Palace and kill and burn her. Attempts were made to stop him, which he resisted, saying that he

The business men's meeting later formed a Committee of Public Safety, to which the About 5 o'clock in the afternoon the United weeks previously and that the member from kalani was vested with the powers of Vice-

Interior Colburn decidedly refused to sign, and her physicians pronounced her at the and Ministers Cornwell and Parker, though point of death.

Queen's persistent clinging to life. The Islands are 2.100 miles from San Fran ping place between America and Australia-China and Japan, are of great commercial importance. The group consists of eight small islands which are inhabited, and said young Sturgis without the least evidence of nervousness.

Mr. Lausing said he handed the check back to the boy, and stepped to the telephone to call up the home office.

When he returned Sturgis and the check had gone.

The Merchants' National Hank is apparently alive to the importance of having the check, for Cashler C. V. Banta is still advertising a warning to persons not to negotiate the check.

Lawyer Zabriskie said to-day that this was done on the bare chance that Sturgis did not destroy the check as he has stated.

A QUIET FUNERAL FOR BLAINE

Services to Be Held in the Church of the Covenant.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28.—The closely drawn blinds of the Blaine Mansion, the air of quietude pervading its surrounds the absence of the newspaper watchers who for seven weeks have remained the absence of the house are the only or snow to-morrow and there will be exceedingly passy weather until perhaps Tuosias to the covenant.

has come.

Telegrams of condolence from every telegraph office and the red house.

Descendants of the Bounty's Mu:1neers Living on Fruit. American bark Vigilant, Capt. F. C.

Pitcairn Island Nov. 8, and brought some

TO SEARCH FOR THE NAMES.

ators belonging to the Democratic section of the Left it was resolved to retion of the Left it was resolved to request M. Bourgeois, Minister of Justice. Pearl street and they go out begging every to cause a search to be made of the mirriang, some pretending to be blind, or residences of M. Andrieux and M. Delanare, with the view of finding the lists arm, but when arrested, last night, it was of persons compromised by the Panama discovered that his arm was all right, but he scandal concerning which M. Delahaye $66,000 PAID BACK TO THE STATE scandal concerning which M. Delahaye Wisconsin Getting the Interest on eral occasions, but which they have pointed To-Day.

A cigarette of higher character, and enjoy-visible signs that the long expected end ingly nasty weather until perhaps Tuostay has come. | night, when a moderately cold wave will move in from the Northwest. pany of a snowstorm, and if it arrives on schedule time it will meet the people returning from church to-morrow noon.

the storm and they will continue to blow throughout the night.

It is colder to-day all over the northern portion or the Middle Atlantic States and New England. It was 23 degrees above zero here at 7 A. M., while at Albany it was only 8. At Northneld, Vt., it was 8 below zero at the same hour.

BRENNAN HAS SCOWS NOW. There Is Hope that the Streets May Be Cleaned.

n a happy frame of mind to-day. The recent haw released the ice-bound scows at Hart's island, and Capt. Anderson, Superintendent town in Franklin, the advoining county, of Tugs and Scows, towed them down.

Now that the Commissioner has vessels to get rid of the accumulated garboge, there is hope that the streets may be cleaned. Tugs Caught in the Ice.

CITY ISLAND, Jan. 28.—The northeast wind has packed the ice in this harbor. The tugs Churchill and Abner Taylor, before re New York, and are now stuck in the mose between here and Throgga Neck.

NINE LETTER-BOXES RIFLED.

Wholesale Mail Robbary Discovered

to the Island. The "King of the Panhandlers." Frank Nesbitt, was to the Tombs Police Court today sentenced to the island for one month.

HILL LOSES HIS SUIT.

the Senator's Clients.

Justice Ingraham, to the Supreme Court,

this morning directed a verdict for the defendant in the suit of the Columbia, Hocking Valley and Toledo Rallway Company against Winslow, Lanter & Co., to recover the value of $8,000,000 worth of bonds alloged to have been converted by Stevenson Burko and his associates. have a beefsteak dinner this evening at their headquarters. 4 West Thirteenth street, theires cuts of beefsteak and something on the side will be served from 4 to 7 o'clock.

Bernard Fox. a stableman at Long Island City, writes to "The Eyening World" to deny positively that he turned State's eviwhen arrested on a warrant issued Cleveland's Cabinet cure. There is hone like it. dth ave., cor.